

ROLL-A-MASTERPIECE: WASSILY KANDINSKY

Create your own abstract artwork inspired by Kandinsky!

WHO WAS WASSILY KANDINSKY?

Wassily Kandinsky was a Russian artist who believed that art could express feelings like music. He used colors, lines, and shapes—not realistic pictures—to create beautiful abstract art.

HOW TO PLAY

- 1 Roll a die.
- 2 Find the matching row.
- 3 Choose ONE shape from each column.
- 4 Draw the shapes on your paper.
- 5 Add colors and extra lines to make your artwork unique!

★ Repeat the game to fill your page!

COLOR WITH EMOTION!

Choose colors that show how you feel. Here are some ideas:

- Red = Excited
- Orange = Happy
- Yellow = Cheerful
- Green = Calm
- Blue = Sad
- Purple = Imaginary
- Black = Powerful
